

MORNING WORSHIP

Giving Thanks Always

“Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.” (Ephesians 5:20)

There are times when you must speak with all the sternness of an Elias. There are proper seasons when there must be no holding back of the most terrible truth. But for all that, let the general current of your life, the natural outflow of your entire being, be a thankfulness to God which makes you loving towards men. I am sure in this way, when you come to speak of Jesus, you will get a more attentive ear, and when you tell your experience, you will recommend the Gospel by your own conversation.

Beloved, I pray the Lord give us evermore a thankful spirit, and when we talk to each other, let it not be our habit as it is ordinarily with Englishmen—to complain of this and of that, but let us thank God and testify of His goodness.

Healthy Living

Oregano Oil (Oral)

Oregano (Origanum vulgare) is a plant with olive-green leaves and purple flowers. The oil it contains is called oregano oil. This is extracted and sold as an over-the-counter (OTC) supplement in pill, capsule, or liquid form. Always talk with a healthcare professional before starting a new supplement.

Let's take a closer look at what the science shows about oregano oil's reported benefits.

- May improve digestive health
- May have an antibacterial effect on skin
- May lower inflammation
- May lower cholesterol and help prevent diabetes
- May help with pain management
- May help with weight loss
- May have anti-cancer activity
- May help fight yeast infections

What are the side effects and risks of oregano oil?

The reported side effects are generally mild. When taken by mouth, the most common ones are upset stomach and diarrhea, allergic reaction, counter with certain medications, and not recommended for people who're pregnant or nursing.

Mission Statement:

To build, in Christ, a church of Love whereby working together for the unity, edification, discipline, and encouragement of believers, we might grow into our Lord, Jesus Christ's image, and have a full life in Him.

"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full."
